

The Train Song

Flying Burrito Brothers

Six more days and I'll be gone
Get on the train that'll take me home
That old train is where I belong
Home's gonna feel just fine

When that old train's gonna move me down the line
Yes, I know him and you do too
There's a lot he can do for you
Looking down from on his throne
Gonna make you feel alright
Just let him keep his arms around you tight

He gave this world to you and me
We're going fishing in the creek
So find yourself a little girl
The world's gonna be alright
Just keep your arms around each other tight
