

All The Time I Bled

Flymore

You piss me off
Fuck your lies
Don't pull that shit
It's a waste of time
I hate how you
Demonize
Everything and
Everyone what's mine

Now it's all gone

Pain that you cause
With no end
Wrong things we said
All the times I bled
Don't help don't try
Let it wash
Me off my pain
Don't get in my way

We have gone too far
My mind has pulled ahead
I count the revolutions
I have no doubt
That's all I've got
We have gone too far
My mind has pulled ahead
I count the revolutions
I have no doubt
That's all I've got

Now it's all gone

We have gone too far
My mind has pulled ahead
I count the revolutions
I have no doubt
That's all I've got
We have gone too far
My mind has pulled ahead
I count the revolutions
I have no doubt
That's all I've got

Love you I can't love you
