

Queen of the Damned

Flymore

She ought to smile
She ought to lie
I know she's got no reason to believe in God
When you talk she sleeps around
You don't know she can't give ground
She wish she could do what you say
She can't find

Way out
To stay out
Of debts
And these are all her memories

Now I want you to tell me
God what for am I in here
What's up with my life
Now I wanna to tell you
God I find my life in you
And I wanna stay

You are all I see
I feel you bleed
I know you've got no reason to believe again
When you people wanna say
Man you have become insane
Don't give a fuck for what you say
We can find

Way out
To stay out
Of debts
And these are all her memories

Now I want you to tell me
God what for am I in here
What's up with my life
Now I wanna to tell you
God I find my life in you
And I wanna stay

Now you smile again
Just let me kiss you
Just wanna let it out now
Let it out now
Now

I, I wanna scream it's behind us now
Just wanna tell you
What's on the way
I am the reason to start new life
No need to suffer No more
Lies
Lies behind us now
Us now
Now the life goes on
We are out

Now I want you to tell me
God what for am I in here
Now I wanna to tell you
God I find my life in you
And I wanna stay.

Now I want you to tell me
God what for
What's up with my life
Now I wanna to tell you
God I find
And I wanna stay.
