

Of War and Resurrection

Fogalord

The endless dark has come
And paints black horizons
A million-blackened stars are waiting for war

The world we know is burnt
A new one is rising
A good or evil one:
It's time to decide

My eyes are lost in this terrible sky
My mind is finding no reason to cry
My heart was pounding for nothing but love...
But now my lust is for war!

It's time choose on what side you will fight
It's time, no colours are left: black or white It's time to follow the fog or to die
So glory and honour will strike

We marched from places of heaven to hell
Through darkness and shadows and death
Follow me to reconquer your land
Or follow me, it's the end!

The Battle rages on
No time for survivors
The fields are green no more dark blood fills the ground

Through axes, steel and shields
The chaos rules the skyline
Outnumber here we are
But masters of war!

In our heart a light shines on
Here we wait for resurrection
Come winter sun, for us, shine on!
Call my name, forest of snow (Fog Lord) I'll return!

From hell... return!
The Fog Lord rose... It's resurrection!

(Voice of the Sword)
Come back from where
Our masters lie...
Forever stay by my side
As one to seal this night

This voice is screaming loud from mountains to mountains the Fog Lord has returned he rides filled with life
He crossed the land of hell but stronger than ever
The overlord is reborn to fight for you all

(Fog Lord)

Time time has come for me to rise from the ashes
and now the battlefield will taste all my rage
The clouds are turning dark
The mist on the horizon
The final storm in me
Resound in my hands

He's back to guide us
He's back to save us
He's back to win this war
All hail the risen lord!

(Fog Lord)

For you I'm back from the valleys of hell
Through darkness and shadows and death
Follow me with your last bit of strength
To make these nightmares end!

In our heart a light shines on
Here he stand in resurrection
A winter sun, for us, shines on!
(Fog Lord) Hail my name, forest of snow
I'm returned!

(Fog Lord)

I know my triumphant flag in the sky
I know these rhymes are the end of my time
I know you'll cry for my silent goodbye
I know that victory is mine
...victory is mine... Victory is mine!
