

Halo

Foo Fighters

1. Good and bad

I swear I've had them both, they're overrated
But is it fun
When you get hold of one
Some gone bad
And some gone back
Good ones all get taken
I'm callin' your bluff
You ain't strong enough

Wait and pray you'll pick on me the day I raise my hand
Guess that I've been blessed but I'll be damned

R: Halo

God only knows
Right behind me everywhere I go
God only knows
Right behind me everywhere I go

2. Say your prayers when you get scared

Pray you're gonna make it
And then when you're done
You keep f..king up
One day soon I'll disappear
And if you'll come I'll take you somewhere to go
To keep from growing old

Wait and pray you'll pick on me the day I raise my hand
Guess that I've been blessed but I'll be damned

R: Halo...

*: Disappear, the light is fading
Disappear, outside their rage
Disappear, I'm tired of waiting
Disappear before we get away...

R: Halo...
