

Home

Foo Fighters

Wish I were with you, but I couldn't stay
Every direction leads me away
Pray for tomorrow, but for today
All I want is to be home

Stand in the mirror, you look the same
Just looking for shelter, from cold and the pain
Someone to cover safe from the rain
All I want is to home

Echoes and silence, patience and grace
All of these moments I'll never replace
No fear of my heart, absense of faith
All I want is to be home

All I want is to be home

People I've loved, I have no regrets
Some I remember, some I forget
Some of them living, some of them dead
All I want is to be home