

The Neverending Sigh

Foo Fighters

Hello, it's me
The end is near
Thought you'd never leave
Haunt and teeth
Just to taste bittersweet
One last thing to get beneath the skin
Beneath the skin

The wishes come inside
The neverending sigh
No one lets everyone
And no one gets everyone in
My exit, no exit
No one lets everyone in

Me and you
Draw the line
Now it's time to move
Face to face
Damn the luck messes with me
Heaven, what's come over me?

The wishes come inside
The neverending sigh
No one lets everyone in
No one lets everyone in
My exit, no exit
Go on let everyone in
No one lets everyone in

No one lets everyone in
No one lets everyone in
My exit, no exit
Go on let everyone in
