

Wind Up

Foo Fighters

1. I have a choice between the bat or the belt
Each time I hear about the hand you've been dealt
Spare me confession it's confession you sell
Maybe I'll fall behind but I don't mind because I'll catch up

R1: I want a song that's indelible
Like manimal
I hope you never see me wind up

2. Will I be happy on the back of the shelf
Will you be happy when we're sharing a cell
Spare me your questions since you know me so well
Someday you'll realize that I get shy and I choke up

R2: I want a song that's indelible
Like manimal
I hope you never see me wind up
What is wrong with this animal
I'm terrible
I hope you never see me wind up

*: Farewell my sweet paramania
Farewell my sweet paramania

3. My only promise is that I'll never tell
Keep you at a distance from the things that I felt I'll bite the bullet take the beating until
I take it all back anyway what was I supposed to say?

R2: I want a song...
