Dreaming

Fools Garden

Dreaming. It's not that easy anymore when you say Dreaming Did you close the opened door while In there We've never been so near the light Without you. I'm only half the man inside See me You're so much more to me than anyone. Leaving. Do you still believe to find by Leaving The light that you just left behind and drive In there. The sky is dark and full of clouds Without you. There's nothing left to kill the doubts To be with you Was to be found and now I'm lost again. Is it wrong? Is it right? It don't matter if we come home tonight There's a light, Let it in again. Sorry. I never meant to break your heart, So sorry. I didn't see the shining star right In there And now I'm lost in all those storms Without you, So afraid I miss your warmth. Forgive me. Don't let me fall and take me home again. Is it wrong? Is it right? It don't matter if we come home tonight There's a light, Let it in Do begin. Is it wrong? Is it right? It don't matter if we come home tonight There's a light, Let it in again. It's so easy. We only have to go inside, So easy. Try to make it. We'll see the light 'cause it's in there. Is it wrong? Is it right?

It don't matter if we come home tonight There's a light, Let it in, Do begin. Is it wrong? Is it right?

It don't matter'cause we came home tonight There's a light, Let it in again. Let it in.
