

Here I Stand

For All Eternity

Reveal yourself.

you try to hide your face,
But your disguise is withering.

I do not know why, you run away from me
Your eyes are full of lies, you cannot lie to me.
This you can't deny, you are afraid of me.
You can't deny.

With all of your might, prove you can win the fight
With all of your might, prove you can win the fight.

This you can't deny, you are afraid of me.
You can't deny.

The light I bear shines through your imitation.
The light I bear shines through your imitation.
Now, you know where I stand, I stand at the right hand.
So, if god is with me, who is against me?

So here i stand, before my enemy.
Against countless odds, his grace consumes me.
His grace consumes me.

So here I stand.
With these scars upon my back.

So here I stand.
With these scars upon my back.

With all your might, prove you can win the fight.
With all your might, prove we can win the fight.

Don't try to prove me wrong.
You try to hide your face, but your disguise is withering.
The light I bear shines through your imitation.

Don't try to take away, my eternity.

I do not know why, you run away from me.
This you can't deny, you are afraid of me.
I do not know why, you run away from me.
This you can't deny, you are afraid of me.

Reveal yourself.
