I'm Not Dead Yet

For All Those Sleeping

Slow down my chest can't keep up With the rate that you're moving Now were moving

Deeper and deeper Now were falling Faster and faster There's nothing left

Please wake me
Because this surely can't be happening
But the touch is so real
The touch is so real
Your eyes speak so clearly
I heard every word you said
Your words are so deadly
But I'm not dead yet

You can't seem to hide What's inside.
You can't seem to hide What's inside.

Deeper and deeper Now were falling Faster and faster There's nothing left

Please wake me
Because this surely can't be happening
But the touch is so real
The touch is so real
Your eyes speak so clearly
I heard every word you said
Your words are so deadly
But I'm not dead yet

Lets shake things up. Lets shake things up.

Please wake me
Because this surely can't be happening
But the touch is so real
The touch is so

Please wake me
Because this surely can't be happening
But the touch is so real
The touch is so real
Your eyes speak so clearly
I heard every word you said
Your words are so deadly
But I'm not dead yet
