

Always About You

For the Fallen Dreams

Why should I let you win
It's always up to you
Not this time
Nothing left to show
Nothing's left for you
No one left to use
What are you gonna do
Fill your voids
Fill your time
Fill your life with your bullshit lies
Whatever you do, you'll always feel empty inside
Empty inside
You're empty inside

If you stay the way you are, in the end you'll get what you want
I'm done wasting my time
You'll never fill this void in your life
Against the wall
Against your knife
No more late nights wondering why you make me feel empty inside

You'll be lonely until you die

Now it's your turn to stay up all night
You'll go to sleep wondering why
You wake up the same why with nowhere to go
With nothing left
No one feels sorry for you
It's not okay that you live this way
It's not okay
You wanna live a life worth living
Let go your past
Stop holding onto things you had
Good things will never last
Stop holding onto your past
This won't last.
