

Living A Lie

For the Fallen Dreams

Don't take this the wrong way
I feel like I'm drowning
Surrounded by takers in a world overcrowded
Surrounded by liars
Don't get me started
Let's see who gets further, half, or wholehearted
Don't take this for granted
I know this is subjective
Take what's been handed, roll with the punches
Let's see who's left standing, or what could be mended
If life is a joke, I won't be offended

Trust me when I say that this is not the way
It's not the way
I've done all my time for all of your crimes
It's not in the rhymes I write line after line
It's in the lies you've lied time, after time

I feel sick to my stomach for all these lines that have been written
I feel sick to my stomach for all the lies that have been given

In my defense, can you see what I'm up against
I want more
Never laid to rest until this all makes sense
In my head, in my thoughts everything has a cost

All of this time, we've been living a lie
In your defense, might as well be laid to rest
Nothing more, nothing less
Doesn't matter if it even makes sense in your head
All this time, we've been living a lie
