For the Fallen Dreams

```
Don't jump the gun.
We'll find a way out, find a way out.
When was I wrong in admitting what I've done.
What have I done?
What have I done?
It's over again.
We always make the same mistakes.
It's over again, it's over again
We go over, it's over, it's over, it's over again.
I got the point written in black ink.
It's not over until we've begun to sink
Throw my hands up in the air
But I'll never be okay
Every nerve in my body hurts
I'll never be okay
It's over again.
We always make the same mistakes.
It's over again, it's over again
We go over, it's over, it's over, it's over again.
It's over again.
We always make the same mistakes.
It's over again, it's over again
We go over, it's over, it's over, it's over again.
Open these arms
Let me in
Get on your knees
Let me believe you'll never do this again, again
Open these arms
Let me in
Get on your knees
Let me believe you'll never do this again, again
Open these arms
Let me in
Get on your knees
Let me believe you'll never do this again, again
Open these arms
Let me in
Get on your knees
Let me believe you'll never do this again, again
