For the Fallen Dreams

Anything that goes on here is never-ending.
Ending things right here would make our life worth living.
Telling you what I think of you would make me happy.
This just goes to show how much I could care less about you.

I want you to feel how I feel.
I want you to feel how I feel.
Pick yourself back up.
Pick yourself back up.

Anything that goes on here is never-ending.
Ending things right here would make our life worth living.

I'm telling you that
You're alright, you always are.
I'm alright, I always am.
We're alright
We always are, we always are, we always are.
You're alright, you always are.
I'm alright I always am
We're alright
We always are, Just look at us now.

I want you to feel how I feel.
I want you to feel how I feel.

You're alright, you always are.
I'm alright I always am.
We're alright
We always are, we always are, we always are.
We'll pick ourselves back up with whats been fed.

We're alright
We always are. Just look at us now.
