

Immanuel (The Redeemer)

For Today

You're not alone, my son
I made you for so much more than this... more than this Don't be afraid, my child, for I have overcome the world Go tell the world that I would die for them to know me
And I would die for them to live
And this is life: that they would know you, God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent

This is life, child
I'll give you everything
And you can stand tall for there is life in me Now, let the blood I shed be just enough for you to know that you will always have a home with me no, you will not be abandoned All hell will not stand against us for only those who choose to die will claim the life I have for them

So now the question stands:
Would you die...would you die for me?
Would you die... would you die for me?
Would you die... would you die for me?
Would you die...
Can you hear it?
Can you hear my voice?
I've been calling you since the day you were born, to come home... to come home to the place I've prepared for you You're not alone
