

Nicodemus (The Seeker)

For Today

Grace is my destiny
but pride is my home
Your words have called me from my comfort I'll give you my life, if you'll hold it in your truth because truth is the pursuit that captivates my soul
And teacher, to be honest
I am very afraid

This is all I have
I come before you broken
This is all I have
Tell me there is more than this Jesus

I'd give my life...
I'd give my life...
I'd give my life for a truth that could never be shaken And then you came to offer me everything that I'd been looking for

I am the reborn into a life of purpose
I am the renewed;
born of the Spirit, and sent forth to walk in truth

I will walk in truth in all the truth of your miraculous power
I will walk in truth
And expect your healing hands to work in me

Grace is my destiny,
but pride is my home
Jesus, your words have called me from my comfort.
I'll give you my life,
if you'll hold it in your truth because truth is the pursuit that captivates my soul

You are all I have
I stand before you redeemed
You are all I have
I could never want more than this
