

Give Me a Sign

Foreigner

Well, there's something inside that tells me
I gotta fight or let you go
I'm not taking this light, yeah
If you want we can take it slow

'Cause there's one thing missing in my life
You and I know we need a change
Gotta try, gotta get it right this time
And this love could be good again

I will give you all I can to show you I'm your man
It would mean the world to me if you'd understand

Give me a sign and let me know
If you gonna stay then tell me so
Should I try to hang on or maybe let go?
Yeah, you got to give me a sign, give me a sign

Well, there ain't no use in pretending
'Cause I got no secrets to hide
I'll be true to you till the end, girl
I need you right here by my side

I always give you all I can
To show you I'm your man
You know you mean the world to me
If only you could understand

Give me a sign, better let me know
If you gonna stay then tell me so
Should I try to hold on or maybe let go?
Yeah, you got to give me a sign, give it to me

Oh, I need a sign to let me know
If you gonna stay then tell me so
Should I try to hang on or maybe let go?
Yeah, you got to give me a sign, give me a sign

So what's it gonna take? Make up your mind
Don't go wasting my time
And Lord, I need an answer now
What's it's gonna be? Ahhh, the waiting is killing me

Yeah, give me a sign and let me know
If you gonna stay then tell me so
Should I try to hold on or maybe let go?
Yeah, you got to give me a sign, give it to me

Oh, I need a sign to let me know
If you gonna stay then tell me so
Should I try to hang on or maybe let go?
Yeah, you got to give me a sign, give me a sign

Give me a sign and let me know
If you gonna stay then tell me so
Should I try to hold on or maybe let go?
Yeah, you got to give me a sign, give it to me

Oh, I need a sign to let me know
If you gonna stay then tell me so
Should I try to hang on or maybe let go?
