I Guess You Can Say Things Are Getting Pretty Serious

Forever the Sickest Kids

Right!

You and me against the wall..
Kiss or fight it, its your call,
No matter what you do,
I'll still feel the same about you,
We're at a cross road,
Our situations changing from day to day,
You're probably thinking that we should go on our separate ways,
No matter what you do,
I'll still feel the same about you..
We're at a cross road..

I get your point,
We're better friends than lovers,
I get it, I got it, I guess that we're moving on,
And if I had a chance, I'd do it all over,
I get it, I got it, I guess that we're moving on,
You got in my heart, you got in my head,
and I believe everything that you said,
We're at a cross road..(3x)
I guess that we're moving on..

You and me, we disagree,
I'm growing young and you're maturing,
You see things in black and white,
It's not my fault you're colorblind,
You finally followed through with the things you told me you'd do,
You're leaving me in Dallas, headed off to somewhere new,
Just like you..
No matter what you do,
I'll still feel the same about you..
We're at a cross road..

I get your point,
We're better friends than lovers,
I get it, I got it, I guess that we're moving on,
And if I had a chance, I'd do it all over,
I get it, I got it, I guess that we're moving on,
You got in my heart, you got in my head,
And I believe everything that you said,
We're at a cross road..(3x)
I guess that we're moving on..

I get your point..
We're better friends than lovers..
And if I had a chance.. I'd do it all over!
You got in my heart, you got in my head,
And I believe everything that you said,
We're at a cross road..
I guess that we're moving on..

I get your point,
We're better friends than lovers,
I get it, I got it, I guess that we're moving on,
And if I had a chance, I'd do it all over,
I get it, I got it, I guess that we're moving on,

You got in my heart, you got in my head,
And I believe everything that you said,
We're at a cross road..
I guess that we're moving on..

You got in my heart, you got in my head,
And I believe everything that you said,
We're at a cross road..
I guess that we're moving on..
