

The Party Song

Forever the Sickest Kids

There's a party going on later on tonight
And everyone's invited
Plus you, you know, you know, you can't stop me
I'm partial to your lips and your eyes
They both compliment your thighs
Ohhh those thighs

You're the first to arrive
The first to TAKE A DRINK
The first to hit the scene
And you make all the guys
Stumble into walls
Your showing off your curves
Your hiding under skirts
Ohhh that skirt

Your such a flirt
To every guy that you meet
And why is purity so beautiful to me
Filthy rag, a dirty whore I have been
Could captivated as a prisoner of my sin

Your the first
The first to arrive
The first to TAKE A DRINK
The first to hit the scence
And you make all the guys
Stumble into walls
Your showing off your curves
Your hiding under that skirt
