My Might

Forrest Jump

Hey man, come here and listen to me It's just a moment but you'll see the whole truth. I can change your life and all your thoughts

Crawlin'in my teeth I'm fallin'on my knees

I'd like to tell you the only vision, Which is truly right Anything you will do you should do for me So what do you say?

My truth still grows up to the sky If you are unbeliever die Everywhere you'll see my sign If you're still unbeliever die

I hope he's right 'cause there's noone to lead There is noone who feeds my mind Livin'me i'll die

My truth ...

The only way to satisfy my need Is to enforce my thoughts and might Lovin'me I'll die

I lie, so what?
I'm a liar, so what?

My truth ...
