Never Mind

Four Star Mary

You could send me a saviour That lives 'til the end of time Promise the heavens But that only leaves me dry too many saviours Fuck with me I won't die I've never cried But I needed more from you I've found my life Without you now and I'd never mind I'm only half as blind 'cause I needed more From you you say my reflection Never fades from your eyes Could change my direction But what I feel can't Disguise my reflection crushing me I won't die I've never cried But I needed more from you I've found my life Without you now and I'd never mind I'm only half as blind 'cause I needed more From you
