Cruel

Foxes

Telling lies
Tell lies makes me want to stay
Give me something out of nothing
If it's not too late
If it's real
If it's real, I guess I feel the pain
Coming closer, out of focus

Oh, when it's hard to
It's hard to love someone who can't be loved
But it's what you do
It's what you do

Baby you're so cruel, you're so cruel
But you got me bound to you, bound to you
This knot I can't undo, can't undo
But you got me bound to you, bound to you

Give it all, give it all
I guess I know it right
Give me something out of nothing
If you need, if you need it then I'll be all right
Give me something out of nothing

Oh, when it's hard to
It's hard to love someone who can't be loved
But it's what you do
It's what you do

Baby you're so cruel, you're so cruel
But you got me bound to you, bound to you
This knot I can't undo, can't undo
But you got me bound to you, bound to you

All I do is waiting
And it's keeping me awake
But to try leave our [?] down
And give it to you

Baby you're so cruel, you're so cruel
But I'm still bound to you, bound to you

There's line that pulls me back to you
There's only so much I can do
Guy that holds the scar
Wrapped around my heart
There's only so much I can do
When you got me bound to you

Baby you're so cruel, you're so cruel
But you got me bound to you, bound to you
This knot I can't undo, can't undo
But you got me bound to you, bound to you

All I do is waiting
And it's keeping me awake
But to try leave our [?] down

And give it to you

Baby you're so cruel, you're so cruel
But I'm still bound to you, bound to you
I'm still bound to you
I'm still bound to you
I'm still bound to you
I'm still bound to you
Bound to you
