

Sweethearts

Foy Vance

Baby, don't cry
There's nothing to fear
So, just close your eyes
And disappear

Into the night
And fly to the clouds
And when morning comes
If I'm not around

Know that I've loved you, sweetheart, from the start
And that won't change
'Til my dying day
I'll share a part of me
And keep my heart for thee

Baby, lie down
And let me secure
That look in your eyes
With love so pure

I will steady your heart
For you to move on
And when morning comes
Should I be gone

Know that I've loved you, sweetheart, from the start
And that won't change
'Til my dying day
I'll share a part of me
But keep my soul for thee

Hm hm hmm hm hm hm hmmm hmmm hm hmmmm
Ooooh ooooh
Ahhhh ahhhh ahhhhhh

Know that I've loved you, sweethearts, from the start
And that won't change
'Til my dying day
I'll take hold of thee
And never let go
For eternity
I pledge thee my soul
I'll share a part of me
But keep my heart for thee

Keep my heart and soul
For thee
