A Passed Life

Mystery finds me in darkness Sun won't shine Blistering pain from a passed life Cross that line

Into the moonlight I ride One way trip to the other side Into the moonlight I ride Losing my grip I cannot hide

Standing on top of a mountain Long way down Hearing the voice of a madman Hit the ground

Into the moonlight I ride One way trip to the other side Into the moonlight I ride Losing my grip I cannot hide

Into the casket I go Debt has been paid seeds have been sown End of the line all that I know

Into the inferno I crawl Licking the flames tasting my fall Melting away sirens that call

Into the moonlight I ride One way trip to the other side Into the moonlight I ride Losing my grip I cannot hide

Dreaming about My passed life

Into the moonlight I ride One way trip to the other side Into the moonlight I ride Losing my grip I cannot hide

Oh I can't hide From my passed life

Oh I can't hide From my passed life Fozzy
