Altered State of Consciousness

The sky is red, falling apart Burning Fields stroke my way The rage inflames, yelling afar Shall I be consumed by War ?

Ablaze in fear

Searching signs to escape Under starlit nightmare Millions of fighting men Yet just a few are real

The raining plague silences time Unleashing ghosts of hate Appalling names, yearning a scar Cruel demons of decay Shapeless face, murderinrg dawn Ethereal faded stead Stateless pain, learning to star Altering my mind

How long for Signs?

Help me to cross the line To fly away from decline Take me To angels of undying end

Altered State of Consciousness

The rising veil slowing my heart Freezing void sets my way Erasing flames, blurring my past My future is mine
