Fractal Gates

No sign of humanity
In these evil might
Unconscious minds possessed by hate
Our leaders are baffled blinds
Translucent oligarchy exempt from all kind of mercy
A compromise of harshness and recklessness
Justice as part of their lies

Deicide and tyranny are our common shrine
We cannot sustain any more of this
Bound in allegiance to drown, they rule like a plague
Stuck in seeds of desire

Hypnotized by broadcasting, false claims
Mesmerized by dull ideals made of grey
Scenes of crowd to pretend we're dwelling democracy
Synthesized self-heralded government

No sign of humanity
In these evil might
Unconscious minds possessed by hate
This is the time to arise

The seasons are losing their sense
In faceless rhyme
Crimes are invading each place
From north to south it feels the same
Our sun falls behind clouds of haze
The millennium is casting its night
So will their tidal reign
Scheme of deny, screams of a million who rise

Our march is on its way, our march yells side by side
Reunited in rawness
In the trail of morale and faith
Dreaming of hope for Mankind
We will reap your empire of pain
Repeal your reliance on war and gain
We will raze your design
And erase your demise
Hear the sound of dawning

Hypnotized by broadcasting, false claims
Mesmerized by dull ideals made of grey
Scenes of crowd to pretend we're dwelling democracy
Synthesized self-heralded government
