

Feel the blaze afar
Open your mind
Reobtain what you once were
Tear your hate apart
Untrust your might
Unleash your abiding rays

Drown me out
Bring me down
Free us all, burn us into the moonlight
Be our reign of flames
Blow me out
Take me down
Only yourself can save us from blinding

Be our day, our new life
Retrieve the sense of our realm
Arise, stream our trail
Revive the source of tomorrow
Spin the rail of our soul
Behold the dreams of the afterglow

On the shores of reliance
Lies a brighter state of slumber
Across the veil of our own existence
Alive yet silent
Rain flows in our veins
Seething in the heart

Feel the blaze afar
Open your mind
Reobtain what you once were
Tear your hate apart
Untrust your might
Unleash your abiding rays
