

On Your Own

Fractal Gates

Some pray to appease desires
Imploring some mercy
Others simply cease to hope
And drown in false control

To feel the messiah
Shall not make you cross the sign
So fierce, so relentless
But it shall not raise you out

Purity is in yourself
Don't seek it, don't trust their lies
Believe in your sense, not their lines
This flame that burns in your heart
The answer is in yourself
Don't dream it, don't close your mind
Live on your own

On your own, follow the tracks you long
Don't care where the others go
On your side, create your own defiance
Answer the call

Find the stream, find your own way
All alone
Wherever glooms are blowing
Step beyond
Underneath tomorrow, lies your core
Hear the call
Align the seeds of your strain
On your own

On your own, follow the tracks you long
Don't care where the others go
On your side, create your own defiance
Answer the call

Purity is in yourself
Don't seek it, don't trust their lies
Believe in your sense, not their lines
This flame that burns in your heart
The answer is in yourself
Don't dream it, don't close your mind
Live on your own

Some pray to appease desires
Imploring some mercy
Others simply cease to hope
And drown in false control

To feel the messiah
Shall not make you cross the sign
So fierce and relentless
Yet you shall not raise the night
