

On the reach of the night
Beyond your sense
On the stream of your mind
Your Kind we're watching
Your wars lead you to a sure destruction

You're the seeds of your own demise
Within yourselves
Can't you see your homeworld in fire?

Reason shall rise
Once you soar in its sunset
Your prison could fall apart
Grey won't drown
Heal the sane, cherish the sharing
The moving abides to thrive

Where timeless falls in motion,
Standing life and dawn
Become the sons of instant
Untie your soul

On the reach of night
Beyond your sense
On the stream of your mind
Your Kind we're watching
The closure deeply lies within yourself
Come, come into the Grail

Where timeless falls in motion,
Standing life and dawn
Become the sons of instant
Unbind your soul
