

You Are Alive

Fragma

You're doing fine, most of the time
You sit and wonder what tomorrow brings
All kinds of things
You sit and wait, you hesitate
Just like you've never been in love before
There's so much more

On your own and though you feel alone
You are alive (you are alive)
Don't you know it's just another day
All alone into this world we're thrown
You are alive (you are alive)
Don't you know it's just another day
On your own and though you feel alone
You are alive (you are alive)
Don't you know it's just another day

You turn around, you're lost and found
Looking for someone who will understand
Or hold your hand
You count the days, a hopeless case
But for the first time you will wait for me
Patiently

On your own and though you feel alone
You are alive (you are alive)
Don't you know it's just another day
All alone into this world we're thrown
You are alive (you are alive)
Don't you know it's just another day
On your own and though you feel alone
You are alive (you are alive)
Don't you know it's just another day
