Framing Hanley

Pardon me for saying, I was afraid she never gave me the time of day

If love is a slow dance, I just hope for one chance

I hope time could stop, it's hard for me to breath

She's really walking over here to me

What should I say? What should I do?

Don't let this end now

Slow this dance down

I could stay here all night... Forever

This is not my strongest point that she knows

She pardons me for stepping on her toes

I heard she's a pageant queen

So what's she doing dancing with me?

I hope time could stop, it's hard for me to breath

She's really falling in love with me

What should I say? What should I do?

Don't let this end now

Slow this dance down

I could stay here all night... Forever Dance with me forever...

Teach me every step, every tip and every turn

Your arms around my neck you make want to learn...

I'm only getting better

Don't let this end now

Slow this dance down

I could stay here all night... Forever

Don't let this end now

Slow this dance down

Don't let this end now
