

It Isn't Like You

Frances

It isn't like you to tell me how you really feel
Turn to me and give me something real
Just for today, show whatever you've been hiding away
And just say what you say
'Cause you've built your walls so high

For a second, let me see behind
Under the surface, what is deep inside?
Am I even on your mind?
For a minute, won't you be with me?
Wear your heart closer to your sleeve
It's the part of you I never see
But it's the only part I'll ever need
It's the only part I'll ever need

It isn't like you, to try and show me up in front of your friends
Oh, why do you pretend?
It isn't like you, after all that we've been through
Stand alone and hit me with the truth
'Cause you've built your walls so high

For a second, let me see behind
Under the surface, what is deep inside?
Am I even on your mind?
For a minute, won't you be with me?
Wear your heart closer to your sleeve
It's the part of you I never see
But it's the only part I'll ever need
It's the only part I'll ever need

On this cold and lonely night
Under cold and lonely lights
Won't you say what's on your mind?
Won't you say what's on your mind?
I'm looking deep into your eyes
But there's so much that I can't find
Won't you say what's on your mind?
Won't you say what's on your mind?

For a second, let me see behind
Under the surface, what is deep inside?
Am I even on your mind?
For a minute, won't you be with me?
Wear your heart closer to your sleeve
It's the part of you I never see
But it's the only part I'll ever need
It's the only part I'll ever need
It's the only part I'll ever need
