

Under Our Feet

Frances

Shaking through the smoke
Aching to the bone
Facing fears I've craved and nearly left behind
You're the refuge in my mind

If the world fell into my hands
Could you bear to take the weight?
And if I'm lost and needing my bed
Would you travel all the way?
And there'll be tons of tears and laughter
But you know me more than my name
So if the sky flew under our feet
Would you keep it all the same?
Would you keep it all the same?

Heaven on the ledge
Everything I know left me
It's not easy when we're miles and miles apart
Can you frame my paper heart?

If the world fell into my hands
Could you bear to take the weight?
And if I'm lost and needing my bed
Would you travel all the way?
And there'll be tons of tears and laughter
But you know me more than my name
So if the sky flew under our feet
Would you keep it all the same?
Would you keep it all the same?

Oh oh, oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh
Would you keep it all the same?
Oh oh, oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh
Would you keep it all the same?
Oh oh, oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh
Would you keep it all the same?
Oh oh, oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh
Would you keep it all the same?
Oh oh, oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh

If the world fell into my hands
Could you bear to take the weight?
And if I'm lost and needing my bed
Would you travel all the way?
And there'll be tons of tears and laughter
But you know me more than my name
So if the sky flew under our feet
Would you keep it all the same?
Would you keep it all the same?
Would you keep it all the same?
Would you keep it all the same?

Oh oh, ooh woah oh
Oh oh, ooh woah oh
Oh oh, ooh woah oh
Oh oh, ooh woah oh oh oh
Oh oh, ooh woah oh

Oh oh, ooh woah oh
