

Seasons

Franco

On a height of winter
I'm calling you tonight
For the rise and fall
I'm calling you tonight

I'll wait for you
In spite of it all
I'll burn out the sun

You're the warmth of summer
I walk towards your light
For the spring you bring
I'm calling you tonight

I'll wait for you
In spite of it all
I'll burn out the sun
I'll wait for you to be a part of me
And I of you

Let's go around the world
And say you're mine tonight
Let's go around the world and forever spin in love

Let's go fly away tonight
Let's go dreaming
And know that I'll be here tonight waiting

I'll wait for you
In spite of it all
I'll burn out the sun
I'll wait for you to be a part of me
Become a part of me
