

Cold Heart of Stone

Frank Black

Winter blows through my coat
It's chilling my bones
But it does not compare
To your cold heart of stone
I pledged you my love
And I gave you my car
Now you're parking with him
Yeah I know where you are
Winter blows through my coat
It's chilling my bones
But it does not compare
To your cold heart of stone
Your favorite perfume
Well I gave you a tub
Now you're stepping out
For your rubba dub dub
If ever you need
Don't call (2x)
I once had a dog
Who ran from his home
But that wasn't even close
To your cold heart of stone
Winter blows through my coat
It's chilling my bones
But it does not compare
To your cold heart of stone
If ever you need
Don't call (2x)
