

Dance War *

Frank Black

Mister, you're an actor
Practicing your lines by yourself
Bon't need no benefactor
I just want to be by myself
I'm going fighting in the dance war
I'm going fighting in the dance war
Though I'm headed nowhere slamming in this pit
My brain was going to melt listening to your shit
I'm going fighting in the dance war
The war will never end and I don't have a care in the world
See the bodies fly
Take the double dare in my world
