

2.5mg Just Ain't Enough For Me

Frank Iero

(We may wanna grow old
But we don't wanna grow up)

Yea it may be a lie
To tell everyone I'm fine when
I get so tired of
All my tired plans
So I won't hesitate
To make all the big mistakes
'Cause I get so excited when
My sky falls down

My smile is a wasteland
My 'sorry's are a wasteland
My body breaks
From all the weight on my shoulders

My love is a wasteland
My forgiveness is a wasteland
I felt all the aches a heart could take
I'll be goddamned

I'm so tired of
All this quiet
Yet I still hesitate
In hopes that I'll save some face
I wanna grow old
But I don't wanna grow up

My smile is a wasteland
My 'sorry's are a wasteland
My body breaks
From all the weight on my shoulders

My love is a wasteland
My forgiveness is a wasteland
I felt all the aches a heart could take
I'll be goddamned

No wonder I wander
And I wonder just who I am
No wonder I wander
And I wonder just who I am
No wonder I wander
And I wonder just who I am

My smile is a wasteland
My 'sorry's are a wasteland
My body breaks
From all the weight on my shoulders

My love is a wasteland
My stomach is a wasteland
I felt all the aches my heart could take
I'll be goddamned
