Frank Iero

If we wait
It may be too late
We'll make everybody cry
We wouldn't even have to try

If we stay
We may overstay
Our allotted time
And it just wouldn't feel right

But I only speak the truth
And I'll always bleed for you

So let's laugh, let's laugh
Let's learn to laugh at ourselves again
Let's love, let's love
Let's hate what our love makes us do

If I try
I may have to try
My entire life
And that just doesn't sit right

But if I fall
Flat on my face
Then may my bones break
Under my own weight

But I only want the truth
That's one thing you can't do

So let's laugh, let's laugh
Let's learn to laugh at ourselves again
Let's love, let's love
Let's hate what our love makes us do

Sometimes though the world goes round
Somethings just don't change
Sometimes it leaves me feeling old

If we wait
It may be too late
We'll make everybody cry
We wouldn't even have to try

I understand
Why you couldn't stand
Another day
Standing in your own way

So let's laugh, let's laugh
Let's learn to laugh at ourselves again
Let's love, let's love
Let's hate what our love makes us do

So let's laugh, let's laugh
Let's learn to laugh at ourselves again

Let's love, let's love

Let's hate what our love makes us do

Let's hate what our love makes us do

Let's love, I love what my hate makes me do
