

Don'cha Go 'Way Mad

Frank Sinatra

I must confess what you say is true
I had a rendez-vous with somebody new
(But) That's the only one I ever had Baby, baby, don'cha go 'way mad

Cheatin' shows and it never goes
You've got a reason to be mad I suppose
But she only was a passing fad
Baby, don'cha be mad

Her kind's a dime a dozen
And that's not the kind I want (I should have past her by) Who'd ever dream your cousin
Would wander in to that restaurant (Would come along and give u s the eye)

I understand that you feel (you're quite) upset
What do you say that you forgive and forget
Come on and kiss me just to show your glad Baby, baby (baby, baby.....) don'cha go 'way mad (Now don'cha go 'way mad)
