

French Foreign Legion

Frank Sinatra

If you turn me down once more, I'll join the French Foreign Legion

Bet you, they would welcome me with open arms

First you love me, yes, then you love me, no
I don't know where I stand

Do we march together down the isle
Or do I march that desert sand?

If you think I won't find romance in the French Foreign Legion
Think about that uniform with all its charm

Just one more time, are you gonna be mine or au revoir cheri
It's the French Foreign Legion for me

Now, if you think I won't find romance in the French Foreign Legion
Think about that uniform with all its charm

Just one more time, are you gonna be mine or au revoir cheri
It's the French Foreign Legion for me
