

Falling Stars

Frank the Baptist

Waiting patiently for me
I see that you haven't lost faith yet
Someday our wishes will all come true
See if the falling stars would like to dance
The romance a tragedy provides
See if the falling stars would like to dance

Breaking her will so she'd believe in me
I hurt her I hurt her
Breaking my will so I'd believe in her
There, but for our grace, we go

The shadowy hand that held the light is gone
And wisdom can't be memorized
I see the changing has already begun
See if the falling stars would like to dance
The romance a tragedy provides
See if the falling stars would like to dance

Breaking her will so she'd believe in me
I hurt her I hurt her
Breaking my will so I'd believe in her
There, but for our grace, we go

Waiting patiently for me
I see that you haven't lost faith yet
Someday our wishes will all come true
See if the falling stars would like to dance
The romance a tragedy provides
See if the falling stars would like to dance

Breaking her will so she'd believe in me
I hurt her I hurt her
Breaking my will so I'd believe in her
There, but for our grace, we go

Ooooooooooh... ooooh... ooooh...
