

Number One

Frank the Baptist

How do you save someone from drowning
When you're not swimming very strong yourself?
There's glitter on my television, ghosts on my radio
Glitter on my television, ghosts on my radio

I try to convince there's things left undone
That the adventure's just begun
There's glitter on my television, ghosts on my radio
Glitter on my television, ghosts on my radio

Would it make you happy
If I lied and told you
It'll all be easy
And everything is alright?

Lost in a fog you might wander from your path
But a lifted haze might show a sadder truth
Stuck in a haze is safer
Why are you so beautiful and distressed?
Stuck in a haze is safer
Why are you so beautiful and distressed?

Would it make you happy
If I lied and told you
It'll all be easy
And everything is alright?
