

Find Her Finer

Frank Zappa

Find her finer, sneak up behind her
Wrapped like a mummy 'till you finally unwind her
Find her blinder, see who designed her
Act like a dummy 'till you finally grind her

If you should see a girl on the street
Now maybe you might think she is sweet
But if you wanna tickle her treat
Now really, what should you do?
(Rat-tat-tat-tat ta-da!)

Don't never let her know you are smart
The universe is no place to start
You gotta play it straight from the heart
She gwine renunciate you
(That's why you gotta)

Find her finer, sneak up behind her
Wrapped like a mummy 'till you finally unwind her
Find her blinder, see who designed her
Act like a dummy 'till you finally grind her

Now maybe you might think this is crude
And maybe you might think I am rude
And maybe this approach I have spewed
Is not the one for you
(Rat-tat-tat-tat ta-da!)

But believe me later on you'll find
As you impress her with your mind
That you would just be left behind
For a wiser fool
(So you might as well)

Find her finer, sneak up behind her
Wrapped like a mummy 'till you finally unwind her
Find her blinder, see who designed her
Act like a dummy 'till you finally grind her

Find her finer, sneak up behind her
Wrapped like a mummy 'till you finally unwind her
Find her blinder, see who designed her
Act like a dummy 'till you finally grind her

Find her finer, sneak up behind her
Wrapped like a mummy 'till you finally unwind her
Find her blinder, see who designed her
Act like a dummy 'till you finally grind her

Find her finer, sneak up behind her
Wrapped like a mummy 'till you finally unwind her
Find her blinder, see who designed her
Act like a dummy 'till you finally grind her

Find her finer, sneak up behind her
Wrapped like a mummy 'till you finally unwind her
Find her blinder, see who designed her

Act like a dummy 'till you finally grind her
