

I Have Been In You

Frank Zappa

I have been in you, baby
And you, have been in me
And we, have been, so intimately entwined
And it sure was fine
I have been in you baby
And you have been in me, and so you see,
We have been so together
I thought that we would never
Return from forever
Return from forever
Return from forever

You have been in me
And understandably
I have been in 'n' outa you
An' everywhere, you want me to
Yes, you know it's true
And while I was inside
I mighta been undignified
And taht is maybe why you cried
I don't know, maybe so

But what's the difference now?
I have been in you baby
You have been in me
Aw' little girl, there ain't no time

To wash yer stinky hand
Go head an roll over
I'm goin in you again
In you again
In you again
In you again
I'm goin in you again, ahhhh
In you again ahhhh
In you again ahhhh
In you again ahhhh
In you again ahhhh
In you again ahhhh
In you again ahhhh
In you again ahhhh
In you again ahhhh

I'm going in you again, baby
An you can go in me too, that's true
I'm gion in you again baby
An later when we get thorough
I'm gion in you again-ahh
In you again, ah
In you again ahhhh
In you again ahhhh
In you again ahhhh
In you again ahhhh
In you again ahhhh
In you again ahhhh
In you again ahhhh
