I'm Not Satisfied

Yeah!

Got no place to go (I'm tired of walking Up and down the street all by myself) No love left for me to give (I tried and tried But no one wants me the way I am) Why should I pretend I like To roam from door to door Maybe I'll just kill myself I just don't care no more Because I'm not satisfied Everything I've tried I don't like the way Life has been abusing me Yeah! Yeah! Who would care If I was gone (I never met no one Who'd care if I was dead and gone) Who needs me To care for them (Nobody needs me Why should I just hang around?) Why should I just sit and watch While the others smile I just wish that someone cared If I was happy for a while Because I'm not satisfied Everything I've tried I don't like the way Life has been abusing me

Yeah!
