

Don't Throw Away All Those Teardrops

Frankie Avalon

I love you, I need you, I understand
I love you, I need you, I understand

Don't throw away all those teardrops
Don't throw away love's sweet dreams

I know the feeling of a broken romance
I know the yearning to beg for a chance

So, don't throw away all those teardrops
Catch them and put them aside
For though it still hurts you
In just a little while i promise, you'll trade Your teardrops for smiles

Don't throw away all those teardrops
Catch them and put them aside
For though it still hurts you
In just a little while i promise, you'll trade your teardrops
You'll trade your teardrops for smiles

I love you, I need you, I understand
I love you, I need you, I understand
My love
