

Two Fools

Frankie Avalon

Two fools
You for wanting me
Me for putting you down

Two fools
Me for leaving
And you for hanging around
Two fools, two fools

Two fools
You for calling
And me for not being home

Two fools
Me for laughing because
You're crying alone
Two fools, two fools

All that kissing
I've been missing
Since we've been apart
I love you

Two fools
You for loving me
Me for breaking your heart

Two fools
You for suffering
Me for thinking I'm smart
Two fools, two fools

All that kissing
I've been missing
Since we've been apart
I love you

Two fools
You for loving me
Me for breaking your heart

Two fools
You for suffering and
Me for thinking I'm smart
Two fools, two fools
Two fools
