

Cosmic Shop

Frankie Cosmos

Your windows glisten yellow in the sunset
I got teary looking at the sky again
Rivers fill the sewers underneath you
I wanna be beneath you too

Each leaf blowing never even knowing
What it was like to be stuck onto a tree
Two white doggies do not know each other
Both of them are holding something pink inside them

You're inching up at a red light
I look straight into your 6 eyes
You can break me up but you can't keep me aside

Like a leaf you shred in two
Has gotta keep on living through
Years to come

When I need to be made to feel small
And I call you but you're not picking up
I just go to the cosmic shop
