

This Swirling

Frankie Cosmos

I'm back on my crying
Every day I'm dying
To let some water out my body
And into the world around me
You didn't look at me at all
And I just stared at the wall
The whole time
I'm like a dandelion
Just a little bit of breath blows me apart
Just standing here seems like a good start
For me to cry

'Cause I'm back on my crying
Every day I'm dying
To let some water out my body
And into the world around me

It never stops, this swirling
But honey I will die trying
I will die crying
I will cry dying
I will try crying
I will cry trying
But see you there
Through a veil of tears
Watch you through a wash
It never stops

It never stops, this swirling
But honey I will die trying
I will die crying
I will cry dying
I will try crying
I will cry trying
But see you there
Through a veil of tears
Watch you through a wash
It never stops

It never stops, this swirling
But honey I will die trying
I will die crying
I will cry dying
I will try crying
I will cry trying
But see you there
Through a veil of tears
Watch you through a wash
It never stops

It never stops, this swirling
But honey I will die trying
I will die crying
I will cry dying
I will try crying
I will cry trying
But see you there

Through a veil of tears
